PhD admissions
(Jan-June, 2023)

School of Planning and Architecture, Bhopal
(An Institute of National Importance, under SPA Act 2014, Ministry of Education)

Introduction

"School of Planning and Architecture offers doctoral degree in Architecture, Planning and Design". The broad objectives of the Ph.D. programme is not only to keep pace with the expanding horizons of knowledge but also to provide research and training that has a relevance to the present needs of the society in relation to social, cultural and environmental sustenance.

The Ph.D. degree is awarded in recognition of the high academic achievements, independent research generation and application of knowledge to the solutions that focus on issues relating to settlement and habitat development including knowledge extraction from extant artifacts and built heritage sites. The academic programme leading to the degree is broad based and involves a minimum course credit requirement and a research thesis.

The school encourages research in interdisciplinary areas through a system of interdepartmental joint supervision. This provides excellent opportunities for interdisciplinary research. The presence of a strong research oriented faculty in the school provides excellent support for the doctoral programme."
